sulting with local authorities was ties to keep out of Offenburg and Ap-

Leading bankers of Germany were immediately arrested and the French will attempt to force payment of the fine.

MINING INDUSTRY IS IN DEPLORABLE STATE OF AFFAIRS

President Brophy of the
United Mine Workers
Addresses a Letter to Interstate Commerce.

ON CAR SHORTAGE

The deplorable condition of the
mining industry in central Pennsylvania is forcibly brought to the attention of the United States coal
commission by President John Brophy of district No. 2 of the United Mine Workers, in a communication to Dr. Edward T. Devine, head
of the commission, in which he calls
attention to the conditions resulting
from the car shortage and the system of assigned cars.

He points out that many miners
are impoverished by reason of the
enforced idleness and merchants are facing bankruptcy by reason of the
inability of their customers to pay
their bills.

Mr. Brophy's communication to
Dr. Devine, sent from United Mine Workers' headquarters at Clearfield
is as follows:

"Dr. Edward T. Devine, United States Coal Commission,

Washington, D. C.
"Dear Sir: We beg to call the attention of the United States coal
commission to the present situation
in many sections of our district due
to the inequitable distribution of coal
carrying cars. We would cite in particular Cambria county. Miners in parts of this county are working a
little as five hours a week, because
of car shortage. Their impoverishment is embittered by seeing privately owned cars come from favor-
ited fields and pass over the Pennsylvania main line where slack work
is very acute.

"In addition to this, the under employed miners see assigned cars go
to favored mines. The system of assigned cars is this: A full string
of cars is sent to those mines which
provide railroads with coal.

"So the double aggravation of privately owned cars and of assigned
cars is intensifying the local situation of slack work and economic suffering. The miners in enforced idleness
thus live in the constant specter
of other mines and miners working nearer to capacity. The remedy
is a fair share of work all
around, and this is determined by
an equitable distribution of cars.

"In these very weeks, while our miners wait for work, there comes
the nation-wide cry for more coal.

"The local situation is further heightened by the plight of the small shopkeeper in coal communities. These shopkeepers extended

COSGROVE'S IDEA

London, Feb. 14.—Eamon DeValera

lic to the plebiscite, according to the Daily Mail.

The Free State president recently stated, "and we are willing to accept the result."

Russian Crown Jewel Bubble "Bursts" On Opening Sailor's Tomb

New York, Feb. 14.—Another Russian crown jewel bubble burst here today when Wm. Williams, U. S. Treasury agent, opened the grave of James
Jones at Cypress Hills.

The grave in Cypress Hills cemetery
has been guarded for weeks by soldiers. Today the guard was tripled.
Every entrance to the cemetery was
guarded by soldiers with fixed bayonets and every precaution was taken
as the grave was opened. There were no jewels there.

Pittsburgh Dispatch And Leader Suspend Publication Today

Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 14.—Two Pittsburgh papers, the Dispatch and Leader, suspended publication today following announcement that they have
sold their interests to the other newspapers so the Pittsburgh field will
hereafter be served by three evening
papers, the Press, Sun and Chronicle-
Telegraph; two morning papers, the Post and Gazette Times, and three Sunday papers, the Press, Gazette and
Post.

The announcement said the Dispatch and Leader withdrew because it
had become a settled fact there were
too many papers for the size of the territory.

Two Million In Jewels Lost In Big Blaze On Maiden Lane, New York

New York, Feb. 14.—Gems and
gold estimated as worth two million dollars lay in the smoking ruins of
a Maiden Lane building, which was swept by fire early today. Police and detectives stood guard over the premises while trusted employees of sixty
jewelers and goldsmiths, whose firm
suffered loss, searched the ruins for
jewels containing the valuables.

credit to the miners through the
strike, expecting that arrears would
be met when work began. But work
is so slack that the mining customers are not only unable to pay back
bills, but are still compelled to plead
for new credits for family necessities. An instance was recently brought to us of a shopkeeper who
is $20,000 in debt because of his credit to miners. Within the next month he faces bankruptcy.

"The evils in their order are these:
No cars, slack work, small pay, im-
poverishment of the miners, bankruptcy of many storekeepers and a
depleted community.

"And over against these: A demand for coal and an abundance of
privately owned cars and assigned
cars for certain mines.

"We urge you to remedy this unjust and inequitable situation by
demanding an immediate distribution of coal cars in fair numbers to
all sections.

"Yours very truly
JOHN BROPHY,
President District No. 2,
United Mine Workers of America

Old Trinity, One of Finest In Canada, Burns
to Ground at Montreal
During the Night.

NO CLUE IS FOUND

Montreal, Canada, Feb. 14.—Old
Trinity church, noted as one of the most beautiful edifices in Canada was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin today.

The flames licked their way to the
tip of the tall steeple and lit up the
entire west end of the city and were
watched by thousands of Mardi Gras
revellers ending their pre-lenten celebration.

The fire was discovered about 1:30
a. m. After the steeple had blazed
for three hours the upper fifty feet
collapsed throwing sparks all around.

An investigation to determine the origin of the fire was started by both
public and church officials. The fire
is a climax to similar ones, many of which were declared to have been incendary.

officers resumed operations this morning.

The men alleged to have been discriminated against have been reinstated and the Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron Company have promised an equitable adjustment of the grievances involved.

Prominent Business Man Weds A Popular Clearfield Girl

A very pretty church wedding was solemnized at St. Andrew's Episcopal church yesterday morning at 10
o'clock when Rev. Richard Allen Hatch by the beautiful ceremony of the Episcopal church united Daniel Leffler with Estella Ethel Beck in the
bonds of matrimony.

The bride, who is the charming ancestral daughter of Mrs. Em-est Beck of Wither street, was given
in marriage by her eldest brother Otto
E. Beck and was attended by Mrs.
Cora Smith of Gettysburg, Pa., a
bride-maid, while Mr. Leffler's best
man was his brother, William Leffler
of Massillon, Ohio. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of the relatives and friends of the happy couple.

Following the ceremony and congratulations the bride party repaired
to the home of the bride where an appetizing wedding breakfast was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Leffler then left by automobile for Tyrone where they took a train for New York and
a wedding trip to the Bermuda islands. Upon their return they will take up housekeeping in their newly
built home on Clearfield street.

The newlyweds are among Clear-
field's most popular young folks, the
groom being a member of the Gearhart Lumber Company and one of our
highly successful younger business-
men. His bride is a charming young woman, well qualified for her new
station in life.

A Valentine
by BERTON DRALEY

LADY LUCK, I humbly bid you.
Be my Valentine!
Lady, sure I wouldn't kid you,
Won't you please be mine?
Life's a gamble. When I ramble
Round about the sphere,
Don't forsake me, never shake me.
Whisper, "Boy, I'm here."

LADY LUCK, I always need you.
Be my Valentine.
When you have a hunch I'll need you
If you'll give a sign.
Be my buddy; help me study
Every game I see.
Come on, leddy, be my steady.
Stick around with me!

LADY LUCK, I need assistance.
Slip it to me, do;
Poverty will keep her distance
If I trot with you.
Smile upon me; do not con me;
All my love is thine.
Lady Luck, Oh hear this bucko,
Be my Valentine!

TROOP III'S VALENTINE PARTY

Girl Scout troop No. 3, gave a Valentine party in honor of Mrs. L. A. Lawhead who has been assisting in organizing Scouting in Clearfield. Twelve girls were invested with Tenderfoot pins with the formal ceremonial of the scout organization. Mrs. Lawhead spoke to the girls on the Girl Scout laws and impressed the importance of living up to them every day instead of once a week. The decorations were made and arranged by Scouts Chase and Zerfoss while the other girls prepared delicious refreshments. Scout games and songs were a part of the evening's pleasure. This troop has made most creditable progress, totalling sixteen girls with Mrs. W. S. Bouton as Captain.

WOMAN'S CLUB HELPS
The Community Service committee of the Woman's Club met at the Scout Home Tuesday afternoon to discuss the ways and means of inaugurating an industrial organization program in Clearfield. This is a totally untouched field and it is hoped that interested helpers will be found and a real movement finally made in this direction. Like every other social advance, Community Service can advise, lay out a program and borrow help from the successful methods of other towns but the actual working out of the local problem will be a growth from within the town itself. This is a totally different proposition from that of the Girl Scouts since the first aim is for the younger girls in industry. If there are any who feel an interest in this movement the chairman of this committee, Mrs. W. S. Bouton or Community Service will be glad to know it.

Does the Tax Collector call at night?

The tax which nobody can afford to pay is the tax which is assessed against health.

When nerves are a-jangle and the night's rest is disturbed, health is paying a tax which cannot safely be continued.

People who drink coffee and tea often find there's a tax to pay for the nerve-stimulation they've had from the drug, caffeine, which coffee and tea contain. Night-time restlessness, daytime drowsiness, nervous irritation and headaches are common forms of the first payments.

There's an easy and delightful way to avoid the tax, through Postum. Instead of coffee or tea. Postum is fully satisfying to taste, with all the comfort and pleasing flavor which a hot, mealtime beverage can give—and without any possibility of harm to nerves or digestion. As many cups as you like with any meal.

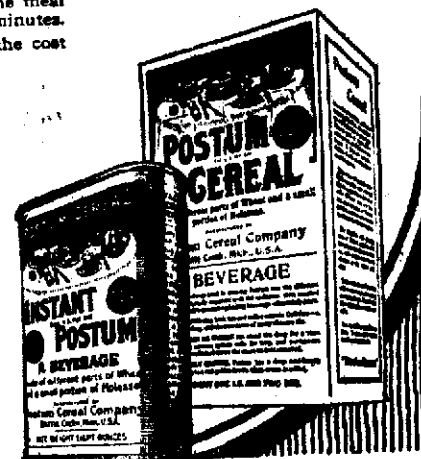

It would be wise for you to stop tax-payments to the coffee and tea drug, and enjoy the kindness and comfort of Postum. Begin today, with an order to your grocer.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages), for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared; made by boiling fully 20 minutes. The two forms are equally delicious; and the cost is only about 15c per cup.

We confess that we know nothing about the care of city streets in the winter time and we presume the Street Committee of Borough Council has a hard time doing anything with the small crew at their command. Many people commented yesterday on the condition of the sewer inlets on the streets of the city and the fact that, although water was running in every direction, no great effort was being made to provide courses for this thawing sluice and water to find its way into the sewer. As a result, these rivulets again froze up last night and created a very bad condition which will get still worse when the next thaw comes.

We do not know what the system is with regard to Council authorizing payment of the Street Committee's obligations. They work on a budget or an allowance probably the lack of funds has something to do with how they conduct their affairs. Regardless of how they operate we believe that the public will sustain them in putting on a sufficient crew of men in the first day of a thaw to open all sewer inlets and thus get rid of this blanket of snow, ice and water as soon as possible.

It is a real pleasure today to read the report of Miss Stella instead of the Tuberculosis Society of Clearfield County. It is that the people of this county, outside of the city of Clearfield, bought life saving Christmas seals to the amount of $28.75, with a few towns still to be heard from.

Of all the present day movements for the public welfare, we doubt whether any of them approach in importance the work of the Tuberculosis Society, whose officers serve without pay and whose object is to stamp out tuberculosis, a stupendous feat which they seem to be on a fair way to performing. The disease is not so prevalent as a few years ago. Not only does this society work along lines that will prevent tuberculosis but they give aid in the form of the proper food to those suffering in order that those without the means to do so may benefit to the full extent of the knowledge physicians have gained in treating the disease.

The Society maintains a nurse with headquarters here, who is doing wonderful and merciful work among the sufferers from the disease as well as keeping an eye on the scholars in the public schools, by which means cases are detected in their early stages and cures effected.

No Christmas gift that we purchased last year typified the spirit of Christ so much as our purchases of Christmas seals, the proceeds of which defeated death and brought sunshine into countless homes.

The elements seem to have a better idea of safety than the people who are responsible for the erection of the signboard on the Pennsy crossing below the county home and particularly those who permitted the sign to be erected when it could have been prevented. The strong wind of last evening scattered the big billboard to the four winds, a part of which landed on the Pennsy track and local advertisers were asked by the company to come out and remove the wreck. Surely, it's an ill wind that blows no good.

The signboard is down now and should stay down. It will stay down if the Clearfield Bill Posting Company has a better regard for the safety of travelers than it has for the mighty dollar.

Speaking of signs, we wonder how many of the overhanging street signs of Clearfield business places have been inspected lately to see if they are safe. The wind today is almost strong enough to wrench loose a well fastened signboard and Clearfield business men will do well to look to their signboards before they are defending a damage suit of several thousand dollars.

Our New Service I Now Ready A Full Explanation of What It Is and How It Works to the Advantage of Every Truck Owner

This new service for truck owners is bound to prove a boon account of the economy that it will work from all angles.

For a small sum we will thoroughly inspect your truck and make certain recommendations for the better working of it. We will fill all grease cups with which is commonly known as grease. This inspection is to be made once every month.

This means that, wherever you have your truck repairs made, disinterested person goes over your truck thoroughly from headlight to tail light and makes an unbiased report on its condition. Nothing can go wrong, not even the most trifling thing is overlooked that is reported to you. Then we submit a written report to you on corrections as we find them and you know exactly the condition of your truck.

By the means of this report you may be able to check up on your driver, your mechanics and the general condition of your truck. This will mean the saving of many dollars as it will catch the little things that may have gone wrong that an ordinary mechanic would catch until it had gone beyond redemption.

Let us call on you and explain the matter further and show you where it means a wonderful saving to you.

CURWENSVILLE

Jerry McNaul, the Second ward mail carrier, is laid up by an attack of tonsillitis. Ed Norris, the night watchman, is substituting on his place.

Owing to the Pennsylvania train being several hours behind schedule Monday evening, Rev. R. S. Oyler, of Philipsburg, who had been booked to preach in the Methodist church, failed to get here, therefore Rev. J. G. Collins, the regular pastor, filled the pulpit for the evening. Last evening the congregation was entertained by a sermon from Rev. W. L. Armstrong, of Clearfield.

We noticed a placard yesterday that there was sixty building lots for sale within the confines of this borough, the price ranging from $50 to $150. That inducement sounds good to us and would naturally indicate that a few dwelling houses will be erected in this borough during the coming summer months. High priced lots has always been a great drawback to the building up of Curwensville, but as the above stated number of lots are within the reach of a workman, no doubt they will be snapped up and improved. The bill also stated that these plots of ground would be sold on easy terms. Now all you fellows who have been crying out that you were unable to build a home from a view point that the lot cost more than the house, get busy and start to build that home you wished for so long. Do not wait until some outsider comes along and takes them over, and then set back your thumbs and utter the old whine "Lots too high."

It was not because "Souira" Dale "lives darkness better than light" that his electric wires were removed yesterday, but for the reason that they had to be taken from the ceiling and walls to permit kalsominers and painters to brighten up things a bit to make the room look more home like and pleasant.

Bethesda Lodge, No. 821, I. O. O. F., has taken an option, with the purpose in view of purchasing, on the brick block known as the Hugh Irvin building, and adjoining the Leib drug store. It is settled so far as the local lodge can go in the matter, as the transaction must meet the approval of the Grand lodge. A committee of Bethesda lodge will meet a representative of the grand body on the 24th of this month and present their claim as to the right of purchase and approval of the grand lodge. The idea of the members of this lodge to purchase a home of their own instead of paying out large amount of money each year in rentals, is a grand one, and none realize the advantage of owning a home more than members themselves. This lodge has paid out in rentals thousands of good, honest dollars since its institution over fifty years ago, and figuring that since rent had been raised on the room that they occupy at present, the organization would be money to the good in a few years by purchasing a home of their own and doing a little renting on the side.

A series of meetings bearing on the subject of the "Pre-Millennial Coming of Christ" will be given this week by an Evangelist in the Christian and Missionary Alliance church on Filbert street. The discourses will be taken from the text, "Prepare to Meet Thy God" Amos 4-12. All persons who are interested in this subject are most cordially invited to be present.

Curwensville was full, alive with entertainment yesterday afternoon. There was a session of Swarthmore Chautauqua in the Strand; an Uncle Tom's Cabin show in the Norris Opera House and a ten pin alley contest at Heitzenrath's between Ed Kelly and Jim Hand. John Pifer was the scorer and referee but ere the game ended got into bad repute and was substituted by Henry, who is undisputed authority in handling alley balls.

George Anderson came in from the direction of the Wiley quarry yesterday and startled the timid natives with the statement that spring was surely on its way to this section, verifying his remarks by saying that a flock of robins were nesting in his corn shocks.

Who's Your Valentine

HE MUST BE A 'PERFECT LOVER'
TO PLEASE THESE BEAUTIES

WHO is our ideal Valentine?
Come, girls, 'less up!
Six leading actresses of stage and screen—all single—set the pace. Here's how they describe their ideal "Perfect Lover":

By EDITH ROBERTS
Movie Star

MY Valentine is a man of strength, both physical and moral, with courage to achieve what he sets out to do, despite all obstacles; one who does not shrink from responsibility. He must love outdoors as I do. He must be practical and yet possess a flair for love and romance. He must, in final analysis, be a man of backbone who combines common sense and medieval gallantry.

By PEGGY WOOD
Star of "The Clinging Vine"

THE man I like best is so big in his mind and his heart, that you forget all about whether he is tall or short, stout or lean. Still, if as modern philosophers tell us, the physical is an expression of the mental, then my ideal man is tall and slender, has a fine shaped head, interesting features and particularly expressive eyes.

He has ideals and a sense of humor. He likes music and poetry. He doesn't think Hamlet was insane, nor boast that he's never read the Bible. He has the proper perspective on his relation to the universe.

In other words, my ideal man is a poet—in his heart, whether his business is selling bonds or building bridges.

By MILDRED DAVIS
Of Film Fame

THE man who comes knocking at my heart must be able to don an apron, help me bake lemon pies and wash the dishes afterward, and

like it—both the pie and the kitchen companionship. The cut of his clothes doesn't count. Nor the figures in his bank-book.

Preferably, he's tall and dark, with eyes and voice to match, but looks aren't half so important as personality. He must be thoughtful and polite without being a fop. Nothing of the braggart. A cavalier, who can play tennis, plant flowers and pull taffy with equal grace. The dandy loves me to death, and the "sheik"

The regular fellow—to him I dedicate "Seventh Heaven" he'll be mine—my Chico and my Valentine. I believe it is a little more practical to have a Valentine ideal in a business suit and an automobile and just now a cozy sitting room with a Victrola is preferable to leaning out over a balcony to a man all in tin freezing on a chilled horse.

My Valentine must be strong, sentimental and human.

By RUTH ROLAND
Screen Favorite

HE who would be my Valentine and hold my heart in thrall. Must be a king amongst his kind, the leader of them all. He must be tall and handsome, with dark, compelling eyes. That gaze in mine to find the light that never, never lies. He must be gentle, kind and good and love me every day. No matter if I'm by his side or very far away. He'd come with me each evening, perchance I wished to roam; If not, he'd don his slippers and gladly stay at home. Where is he? Don't all talk at once! He surely must be near! And when he comes he needn't speak, I'd know him anywhere— But maybe there comes a time that makes my heart feel sure.

I've asked for such perfection—they don't make 'em any more!

By HELEN MENKEN
Star of "Seventh Heaven"

I WANT my beau just like Chico—a handsome blade with manner charming, a youth whose mind is always filled with thoughts, a bit alarming. And I'll confess that his dress is of the drain pipes 'twixt not matter, so long as he upon his knee makes love in the divine pattern. So long as he can lift poor me

MINING INDUSTRY IS IN DEPLORABLE STATE OF AFFAIRS

President Brophy of the
United Mine Workers
Addresses a Letter to Interstate Commerce.

The deplorable condition of the
mining industry in central Pennsylvania is forcibly brought to the attention of the United States coal
commission by President John
Brophy of district No. 2 of the United Mine Workers, in a communication to Dr. Edward T. Devine, head
of the commission, in which he calls
attention to the conditions resulting
from the car shortage and the system of assigned cars.

He points out that many miners
are impoverished by reason of the
enforced idleness and merchants are
facing bankruptcy by reason of the
inability of their customers to pay
their bills.

Mr. Brophy's communication to
Dr. Devine, sent from United Mine Workers' headquarters at Clearfield,
is as follows:

"Dr. Edward T. Devine, United States Coal Commission,

Washington, D. C.
"Dear Sir: We beg to call the attention of the United States coal
commission to the present situation
in many sections of our district due
to the inequitable distribution of coal
carrying cars. We would cite in particular Cambria county. Miners in
parts of this county are working a
little as five hours a week, because
of car shortage. Their impoverish-
ment is embittered by seeing privately owned cars come from favor-
ited fields and pass over the Pennsylvania main line where slack work
is very acute.

"In addition to this, the under employed miners see assigned cars go
to favored mines. The system of
assigned cars is this: A full string
of cars is sent to those mines which
provide railroads with coal.

"So the double aggravation of privately owned cars and of assigned
cars is intensifying the local situation of slack work and economic suffering. The miners in enforced idleness
thus live in the constant specter
of other mines and miners working nearer to capacity. The remedy
is a fair share of work all
around, and this is determined by
an equitable distribution of cars.

"In these very weeks, while our
miners wait for work, there comes
the nation-wide cry for more coal.

"The local situation is further
heightened by the plight of the small shopkeeper in coal communities.
These shopkeepers extended

COSGROVE'S IDEA

London, Feb. 14.—Eamon DeValera

Daily Mail.

Russian Crown Jewel Bubble "Bursts" On Opening Sailor's Tomb

New York, Feb. 14.—Another Russian crown jewel bubble burst here today when Wm. Williams, U. S. Treasury agent, opened the grave of James
Jones at Cypress Hills.

The grave in Cypress Hills cemetery
has been guarded for weeks by soldiers. Today the guard was tripled.
Every entrance to the cemetery was
guarded by soldiers with fixed bay-
onets and every precaution was taken
as the grave was opened. There
were no jewels there.

Pittsburgh Dispatch And Leader Suspend Publication Today

Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 14.—Two Pittsburgh papers, the Dispatch and Leader, suspended publication today following announcement that they have
sold their interests to the other newspapers so the Pittsburgh field will
hereafter be served by three evening
papers, the Press, Sun and Chronicle-
Telegraph; two morning papers, the
Post and Gazette Times, and three
Sunday papers, the Press, Gazette and
Post.

The announcement said the Dispatch and Leader withdrew because it
had become a settled fact there were
too many papers for the size of the
territory.

Two Million In Jewels Lost In Big Blaze On Maiden Lane, New York

New York, Feb. 14.—Gems and
gold estimated as worth two million
dollars lay in the smoking ruins of
a Maiden Lane building, which was
swept by fire early today. Police and
detectives stood guard over the premises while trusted employees of sixty
jewelers and goldsmiths, whose firm
suffered loss, searched the ruins for
jewels containing the valuables.

credit to the miners through the
strike, expecting that arrears would
be met when work began. But work
is so slack that the mining custom-
ers are not only unable to pay back
bills, but are still compelled to plead
for new credits for family necessities.
An instance was recently
brought to us of a shopkeeper who
is $20,000 in debt because of his
credit to miners. Within the next
month he faces bankruptcy.

"The evils in their order are these:
No cars, slack work, small pay, im-
poverishment of the miners, bankruptcy of many storekeepers and a
depleted community.

"And over against these: A demand for coal and an abundance of
privately owned cars and assigned
cars for certain mines.

"We urge you to remedy this un-
just and inequitable situation by
demanding an immediate distribution of coal cars in fair numbers to
all sections.

"Yours very truly
JOHN BROPHY,
President District No. 2,
United Mine Workers of America

Old Trinity, One of Fin-

During the Night.

NO CLUE IS FOUND

Montreal, Canada, Feb. 14.—Old
Trinity church, noted as one of the
most beautiful edifices in Canada was
destroyed by fire of undetermined origin today.

The flames licked their way to the
tip of the tall steeple and lit up the
entire west end of the city and were
watched by thousands of Mardi Gras
revellers ending their pre-lenten celebration.

The fire was discovered about 1:30
a. m. After the steeple had blazed
for three hours the upper fifty feet
collapsed throwing sparks all around.
An investigation to determine the
origin of the fire was started by both
public and church officials. The fire
is a climax to similar ones, many of
which were declared to have been in-
cendary.

Prominent Business Man Weds A Popular Clearfield Girl

A very pretty church wedding was
solemnized at St. Andrew's Episcopal
church yesterday morning at 10
o'clock when Rev. Richard Allen
Hatch by the beautiful ceremony of
the Episcopal church united Daniel
Leffler with Estella Ethel Beck in the
bonds of matrimony.

The bride, who is the charming ancestral daughter of Mrs. Em-
est Beck of Wither street, was given
in marriage by her eldest brother Otto
E. Beck and was attended by Mrs.
Cora Smith of Gettysburg, Pa., a
bride-maid, while Mr. Leffler's best
man was his brother, William Leffler
of Massillon, Ohio. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of the relatives and friends of the happy couple.

Following the ceremony and congratulations the bride party repaired
to the home of the bride where an ap-
petizing wedding breakfast was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Leffler then
left by automobile for Tyrone where
they took a train for New York and
a wedding trip to the Bermuda islands. Upon their return they will
take up housekeeping in their newly
built home on Clearfield street.

The newlyweds are among Clear-
field's most popular young folks, the
groom being a member of the Gear-
hart Lumber Company and one of our
highly successful younger business-
men. His bride is a charming young
woman, well qualified for her new
station in life.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

two brothers and sisters also survive him.

A Valentine

by BERTON DRALEY

LADY LUCK, I humbly bid you,
L Be my Valentine!
Lady, sure I wouldn't kid you,
Won't you please be mine?
Life's a gamble. When I ramble
Round about the sphere,
Don't forsake me, never shake me,
Whisper, "Boy, I'm here."

LADY LUCK, I always need you,
L Be my Valentine.
When you have a hunch I'll need you
If you'll give a sign.
Be my buddy; help me study
Every game I see.
Come on, leddy, be my steady,
Stick around with me!

LADY LUCK, I need assistance,
L Slip it to me, do;
Poverty will keep her distance
If I trot with you.
Smile upon me; do not con me;
All my love is thine.
Lady Luck, Oh hear this bucko,
Be my Valentine!

C. B. Patrick, Venerable Resident Of Burnside, Dies Very Suddenly

The many Clearfield friends of Charles B. Patrick, of Burnside, will be shocked to learn of his sudden death which occurred at his home there about 1:30 o'clock this morning.
Mr. Patrick was in Clearfield yesterday attending the funeral of Senator Horace Tompkins. He returned home on the New York Central train leaving here at 5 o'clock. He went to bed last night in his usual health, but at 1:30 this morning he awoke complaining of a pain in his chest. His family was aroused and attempted to minister to him, but he expired before anything could be done for him.

Legion Band To Give All-American Concert On Sunday Afternoon

The American Legion Band has all arrangements made for another of those delightful concerts on Sunday afternoon next in the High School auditorium.

Owing to the fact that this concert falls between the birthdays of the foremost of America's statesmen, Lincoln and Washington, Professor Thayer has arranged an entire program by American composers. This is the first time in the history of the band that such a program has been attempted and the selections have been made with an idea to popularize American music.

An innovation in this concert will be two numbers of community singing. This is one thing that Clearfield has fallen down on since the war and it is the purpose of the band to foster
the idea.

During the concert Senator William
I. Betts will deliver an address eulogizing the two American immortals and this will prove an interesting feature of the afternoon's program.

BOOTLEGGERS AND RUM RUNNERS HAVE LITTLE SYMPATHY WITH CONSTABLES WHO RUN AFOUL OF THE OFFICERS

This said by those in on the know that when news of the arrest of Constable Oscar Manion, the "Puseyville" guardian of the law, by state police over at Hollidaysburg for transporting Bigler township's finest product reached the colony of moonshiners ordering without let or hindrance, except the "miller's toll" exacted by the minions of the law from time to time
in and around and about Atlantic, Frenchtown or Stony-ton, the aforesaid illicit distillers called a meeting of the board of directors of the Atlantic Distilling Company Consolidated. The president after calling the assembly to order read the new dispatch concerning the arrest of Constable Manion for transporting liquor.

The news was received with an outburst of applause and very general satisfaction. One fellow got up and offered a resolution of thanks which read something like this:

Resolved, That we the producers of "Atlantic moonshine" view with satisfaction and great profit to ourselves the arrest of Constable "Onion," as we have reason to know him. He was always on hand to get him, may we do as well when he faces Judge Baldridge.

One of the talkative dregs got up to discuss the resolution, saying the never had Constable Manion's name wrong, but the fellow who introduced it said he knew what he was talking about and while it was talking Manion on the police record, he knew him as Constable "Onion" because he never came to his place of business without "raising a stink" and bringing tears to the eyes of everybody round the still when he took his fair or keefer of toll away with him.

The moonshiners and bootleggers up Madera way allege, or at least some of them do, that the worthy constable used to invade the homes where he knew moonshining was being carried on and on the strength of his authority as an officer made the shun-or deliver half his product. He is also charged with having held up autos transporting liquor on the public highways through his ballistics, and made the drivers deliver over a share of the stuff they were carrying before he would allow them to pass.

We don't know how true all these stories are but that is what the bootleggers are saying now that Constable Manion has met his Waterloo.

TROOP III'S VALENTINE PARTY

Girl Scout troop No. 3, gave a Valentine party in honor of Mrs. L. A. Lawhead who has been assisting in organizing Scouting in Clearfield. Twelve girls were invested with Tenderfoot pins with the formal ceremonial of the scout organization. Mrs. Lawhead spoke to the girls on the Girl Scout laws and impressed the importance of living up to them every day instead of once a week. The decorations were made and arranged by Scouts Chase and Zeffoss while the other girls prepared delicious refreshments. Scout games and songs were a part of the evening's pleasure. This troop has made most creditable progress, totalling sixteen girls with Mrs. W. S. Bouton as Captain.

WOMAN'S CLUB HELPS
The Community Service committee of the Woman's Club met at the Scout Home Tuesday afternoon to discuss the ways and means of inaugurating an industrial organization program in Clearfield. This is a totally untouched field and it is hoped that interested helpers will be found and a real movement finally made in this direction. Like every other social advance, Community Service can advise, lay out a program and borrow help from the successful methods of other towns but the actual working out of the local problem will be a growth from within the town itself. This is a totally different proposition from that of the Girl Scouts since the first aim is for the younger girls in industry. If there are any who feel an interest in this movement the chairman of this committee, Mrs. W. S. Bouton or Community Service will be glad to know it.

Take This Advice if Run-downs Weak or Nervous

Erie, Pa.—"During the time I was raising my family I became very delicate and weak. I was miserable all the time until I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I found it most beneficial during expectancy and afterward to give me strength. For several years I depended entirely on this medicine to keep me in good health, which it did. I heartily recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to women who become weak and run-down while raising their families."—Mrs. J. McGuire, 228 Scott Street.

LOCAL WRESTLER WINS IN SOUTH

"Bill" Gardner, the local wrestler who is spending the winter at St. Petersburg, Fla., is rapidly adding to his list at the Independent Athletic club last night, defeating Billy Laird in two straight falls. The first fall came in 20 minutes with the double wrist lock. The second fall was won with the body scissors and head lock. Gardner came near losing the match on several occasions, but strength and experience enabled Laird's downfall.

Laird challenged Gardner to meet Andy Link, of Lakeland on Feb. 16.

Does the Tax Collector call at night?

The tax which nobody can afford to pay is the tax which is assessed against health.

When nerves are a-jangle and the night's rest is disturbed, health is paying a tax which cannot safely be continued.

People who drink coffee and tea often find there's a tax to pay for the nerve-stimulation they've had from the drug, caffeine, which coffee and tea contain. Night-time restlessness, daytime drowsiness, nervous irritation and headaches are common forms of the first payments.

There's an easy and delightful way to avoid the tax, through Postum. Instead of coffee or tea, Postum is fully satisfying to taste, with all the comfort and pleasing flavor which a hot, mealtime beverage can give—and without any possibility of harm to nerves or digestion. As many cups as you like with any meal.

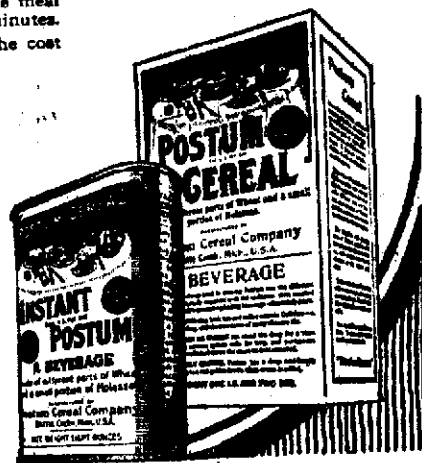

It would be wise for you to stop tax-payments to the coffee and tea drug, and enjoy the kindness and comfort of Postum. Begin today, with an order to your grocer.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages), for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared; made by boiling fully 20 minutes. The two forms are equally delicious; and the cost is only about 15c per cup.

ODDS AND ENDS
AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

The slump in immigration caused by the war and the continuing low level caused by restrictive legislation have served to put in the background of the public mind the problems and opportunities connected with our foreign born and their children. Yet such problems and opportunities are there and will continue for the better part of a generation, without regard to new arrivals, says W. F. McDermott in the Chicago News. The drop from 1,000,000 new arrivals a year to a net 200,000 to 350,000 serves to permit the United States to take its mind off making provisions for food and clothes and living quarters for the newcomers and to take stock of its task.

The situation might be described as "the world in America." The church would describe it as "foreign missions in the home land." Popular opinion has it that most of these foreign-born are crowded in New York, Chicago, Cleveland, St. Louis and Philadelphia. Yet while they have hundreds of thousands of them, there are vast numbers scattered from one end of the country to the other. Read this digest of fact made by the Methodist church on "Where our neighbors live."

New England is more Latin and Slavic than American.

The Portuguese dominate old Cape Cod.

Boston, the Hub of the Universe, has in a radius of fifty miles, seven cities of over 100,000 people that are more than 50 per cent foreign.

The Slavs are in the majority in the anthracite regions of Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

The great lakes cities of New York, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois are Slavic and southern European.

The iron mines of Minnesota are Austrian and Finnish.

The coal fields of Illinois, Missouri and Kansas are Italian and Slavic.

In whole counties of Nebraska and Iowa Bohemians predominate.

The Russians dominate certain counties in North Dakota.

The great rural wheatfields of the northwest are largely Scandinavian and German.

The mines of Colorado and Utah are filled with southern Europeans, Mexicans and Russians.

There are over 1,000,000 Spanish speaking people along the southwest.

The Pacific coast has thousands of Japanese and Chinese along its entire length.

America has 10,463,000 colored people, 58,421,900 of native white parentage and 36,398,900 foreign-born or of foreign-born or mixed parentage. Chicago has only 800,000 native whites of native-born parents out of about 2,750,000 inhabitants. It has 110,000 negroes, 805,000 foreign-born whites, and 1,035,000 of foreign parentage. An average 1,000 of Chicago's population has 370 of foreign-born parentage, 300 foreign-born, 290 native whites of native born and 40 negroes.

There are 1,508 secular and 495 religious periodicals printed in foreign languages in the United States. For eign-born people are more law-abiding here than the native born, but the children of foreign parentage are more lawless than those of native parentage.

We confess that we know nothing about the care of city streets in the winter time and we presume the Street Committee of Borough Council has a hard time doing anything with the small crew at their command. Many people commented yesterday on the condition of the sewer inlets on the streets of the city and the fact that, although water was running in every direction, no great effort was being made to provide courses for this thawing sluice and water to find its way into the sewer. As a result, these rivulets again froze up last night and created a very bad condition which will get still worse when the next thaw comes.

We do not know what the system is with regard to Council authorizing payment of the Street Committee's obligations. They work on a budget or an allowance probably the lack of funds has something to do with how they conduct their affairs. Regardless of how they operate we believe that the public will sustain them in putting on a sufficient crew of men in the first day of a thaw to open all sewer inlets and thus get rid of this blanket of snow, ice and water as soon as possible.

It is a real pleasure today to read the report of Miss Stella instead of the Tuberculosis Society of Clearfield County. It is that the people of this county, outside of the city of Clearfield, bought life saving Christmas seals to the amount of $28.75, with a few towns still to be heard from.

Of all the present day movements for the public welfare, we doubt whether any of them approach in importance the work of the Tuberculosis Society, whose officers serve without pay and whose object is to stamp out tuberculosis, a stupendous feat which they seem to be on a fair way to performing. The disease is not so prevalent as a few years ago. Not only does this society work along lines that will prevent tuberculosis but they give aid in the form of the proper food to those suffering in order that those without the means to do so may benefit to the full extent of the knowledge physicians have gained in treating the disease.

The Society maintains a nurse with headquarters here, who is doing wonderful and merciful work among the sufferers from the disease as well as keeping an eye on the scholars in the public schools, by which means cases are detected in their early stages and cures effected.

No Christmas gift that we purchased last year typified the spirit of Christ so much as our purchases of Christmas seals, the proceeds of which defeated death and brought sunshine into countless homes.

The elements seem to have a better idea of safety than those who are responsible for the erection of the signboard on the Pennsy crossing below the county home and particularly those who permitted the sign to be erected when it could have been prevented. The strong wind of last evening scattered the big billboard to the four winds, a part of which landed on the Pennsy track and local advertisers were asked by the company to come out and remove the wreck. Surely, it's an ill wind that blows no good.

The signboard is down now and should stay down. It will stay down if the Clearfield Bill Posting Company has a better regard for the safety of travelers than it has for the mighty dollar.

Speaking of signs, we wonder how many of the overhanging street signs of Clearfield business places have been inspected lately to see if they are safe. The wind today is almost strong enough to wrench loose a well fastened signboard and Clearfield business men will do well to look to their signboards before they are defending a damage suit of several thousand dollars.

Earth is an irregular Sphere. The diameter of the earth from pole to pole through the equator is shorter than that at the equator. Though in popular language the earth is said to be round, like a ball, it is really an irregular sphere slightly flattened at the poles. The slight departure from roundness is accounted for by the rapid motion of the earth while in a more plastic state.

Our New Service Is Now Ready

A Full Explanation of What It Is and How It Works to the Advantage of Every Truck Owner

This new service for truck owners is bound to prove a boon on account of the economy that it will work from all angles.

For a small sum we will thoroughly inspect your truck and make certain recommendations for the better working of it. We will fill all grease cups with which is commonly known as grease. This inspection is to be made once every month.

This means that, wherever you have your truck repairs made, a disinterested person goes over your truck thoroughly from headlight to tail light and makes an unbiased report on its condition. Nothing can go wrong, not even the most trifling thing is overlooked that is reported to you. Then we submit a written report to you on corrections as we find them and you know exactly the condition of your truck.

By the means of this report you may be able to check up on your driver, your mechanics and the general condition of your truck. This will mean the saving of many dollars as it will catch the little things that may have gone wrong that an ordinary mechanic would catch until it had gone beyond redemption.

Let us call on you and explain the matter further and show you where it means a wonderful saving to you.

CURWENSVILLE

Jerry McNaul, the Second ward mail carrier, is laid up by an attack of tonsillitis. Ed Norris, the night watchman, is substituting on his route.

Owing to the Pennsylvania train being several hours behind schedule Monday evening, Rev. R. S. Oyler, of Philipsburg, who had been booked to preach in the Methodist church, failed to get here, therefore Rev. J. G. Collins, the regular pastor, filled the pulpit for the evening. Last evening the congregation was entertained by a sermon from Rev. W. L. Armstrong, of Clearfield.

We noticed a placard yesterday that there was sixty building lots for sale within the confines of this borough, the price ranging from $50 to $150. That inducement sounds good to us and would naturally indicate that a few dwelling houses will be erected in this borough during the coming summer months. High priced lots has always been a great drawback to the building up of Curwensville, but as the above stated number of lots are within the reach of a workman, no doubt they will be snapped up and improved. The bill also stated that these plots of ground would be sold on easy terms. Now all you fellows who have been crying out that you were unable to build a home from a view point that the lot cost more than the house, get busy and start to build that home you wished for so long. Do not wait until some outsider comes along and takes them over, and then set back your thumbs and utter the old whine "Lots too high."

It was not because "Souira" Dale "lives darkness better than light" that his electric wires were removed yesterday, but for the reason that they had to be taken from the ceiling and walls to permit kalsominers and painters to brighten up things a bit to make the room look more home like and pleasant.

Bethesda Lodge, No. 821, I. O. O. F., has taken an option, with the purpose in view of purchasing, on the brick block known as the Hugh Irvin building, and adjoining the Leib drug store. It is settled so far as the local lodge can go in the matter, as the transaction must meet the approval of the Grand lodge. A committee of Bethesda lodge will meet a representative of the grand body on the 24th of this month and present their claim as to the right of purchase and approval of the grand lodge. The idea of the members of this lodge to purchase a home of their own instead of paying out large amount of money each year in rentals, is a grand one, and none realize the advantage of owning a home more than members themselves. This lodge has paid out in rentals thousands of good, honest dollars since its institution over fifty years ago, and figuring that since rent had been raised on the room that they occupy at present, the organization would be money to the good in a few years by purchasing a home of their own and doing a little renting on the side.

What was supposed to be the first thimble was made in the year 1081 but devices of an apparently similar pattern have been found in Egyptian tombs.

RUB THE SPINE

If you believe the spine is the seat of most of your physical ills and more people are thinking so every day, just give it a gentle massage every night with Joint-Ease and watch the helpful results. Many people are getting it daily from good pharmacists.

The name is Joint-Ease and it's the one big discovery for stiff, swollen, inflamed joints—and a tube for only 60 cents.

years, is now confined to his home on Meadow street from an injury received a few days ago. A chain belt slipped from its fastening on a press of some sort and struck him with a force causing a serious and painful injury. At the present time he is under the direct care of Dr. M. O. King.

A series of meetings bearing on the subject of the "Pre-Millennial Coming of Christ" will be given this week by an Evangelist in the Christian and Missionary Alliance church on Filbert street. The discourses will be taken from the text, "Prepare to Meet Thy God" Amos 4-12. All persons who are interested in this subject are most cordially invited to be present.

Curwensville was full, alive with entertainment yesterday afternoon. There was a session of Swarthmore Chautauqua in the Strand; an Uncle Tom's Cabin show in the Norris Opera House and a ten pin alley contest at Heitzenrath's between Ed Kelly and Jim Hand. John Pifer was the scorer and referee but ere the game ended got into bad repute and was substituted by Henry, who is undisputed authority in handling alley balls.

Thought for the Day.
The spirit that prompts a gift more than the gift.

Who's Your Valentine HE MUST BE A 'PERFECT LOVER' TO PLEASE THESE BEAUTIES

WHO is our ideal Valentine?
Come, girls, 'less up!
Six leading actresses of stage and screen—all single—set the pace. Here's how they describe their ideal "Perfect Lover":

By EDITH ROBERTS
Movie Star

MY Valentine is a man of strength, both physical and moral, with courage to achieve what he sets out to do, despite all obstacles; one who does not shrink from responsibility. He must love outdoors as I do. He must be practical and yet possess a flair for love and romance. He must, in final analysis, be a man of backbone who combines common sense and medieval gallantry.

By PEGGY WOOD
Star of "The Clinging Vine"

THE man I like best is so big in his mind and his heart, that you forget all about whether he is tall or short, stout or lean. Still, if as modern philosophers tell us, the physical is an expression of the mental, then my ideal man is tall and slender, has a fine shaped head, interesting features and particularly expressive eyes.

He has ideals and a sense of humor. He likes music and poetry. He doesn't think Hamlet was insane, nor boast that he's never read the Bible. He has the proper perspective on his relation to the universe.

In other words, my ideal man is a poet—in his heart, whether his business is selling bonds or building bridges.

Of Film Fame

THE man who comes knocking at my heart must be able to don an apron, help me bake lemon pies and wash the dishes afterward, and

like it—both the pie and the kitchen companionship. The cut of his clothes doesn't count. Nor the figures in his bank-book.

Preferably, he's tall and dark, with eyes and voice to match, but looks aren't half so important as personality. He must be thoughtful and polite without being a fop. Nothing of the braggart. A cavalier, who can play tennis, plant flowers and pull taffy with equal grace. The dandy loves me to death, and the "sheik"

The regular fellow—to him I dedicate "Seventh Heaven" he'll be mine—my Chico and my Valentine. I hate this Valentine, wherever he may be!

By JEANNE EAGELS
Star of "Rain"

THE hero of my childish Valentine days (not so very long ago) was generally some prince, romantic, adventuresome and handsome, who did all sorts of daredevil things on account of me.

Yes, I do dream but not so much now of princes and knights. I believe it is a little more practical to have a Valentine ideal in a business suit and an automobile and just now a cozy sitting room with a Victrola is preferable to leaning out over a balcony to a man all in tin freezing on a chilled horse.

My Valentine must be strong, sentimental and human.

By RUTH ROLAND
Screen Favorite

HE who would be my Valentine and hold my heart in thrall Must be a king amongst his kind, the leader of them all. He must be tall and handsome, with dark, compelling eyes That gaze in mine to find the light that never, never lies. He must be gentle, kind and good and love me every day; No matter if I'm by his side or very far away. He'd come with me each evening, perchance I wished to roam; If not, he'd don his slippers and gladly stay at home.

Where is he? Don't all talk at once! He surely must be near! And when he comes he needn't speak, I'd know him anywhere— But maybe there comes a time that makes my heart feel sure—

I've asked for such perfection—they don't make 'em any more!

By HELEN MENKEN
Star of "Seventh Heaven"

I WANT my beau just like Chico—a handsome blade with manner charming, a youth whose mind is always filled with thoughts, bit alarming. And I'll confess that his dress is of the drain pipes 'twixt not matter, so long as he upon his knee makes love in the divine pattern. So long as he can lift poor me
